THE WANAMAKER STORE, New York,
THE EATON STORE, Toronto.

Are they not the three greatest stores on the American continent? Why did they throw out all other Patterns to handle the THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS exclusively? If the reasons are not perfectly clear to all who use Patterns, perhaps a trial of one of these Patterns would let in a little light on the subject.

William Dickie was released by the police Saturday, as there seemed to be no evidence that he took the watch which was stolen from the room of James Donald in the Miles building on Friday.

John O. Mitchell of Aberdeen, Scotland, arrived in town Saturday and will reside here if successful in securing a position. Mr. Mitchell is one of the champion swimmers of Scotland and holds several medals.

Mrs. Thompson and her daughter, Miss Jeanette Thompson of North Stratford, N. H., who have been visiting at the home of friends in this city over Sunday, went to Burlington this morning, where they will spend the winter at the home of Mrs. Thompson's daughter, Mrs. E. M. Fuller.

With the rain coming down in liberal buckets and with the pavement running streams, the city sprinkling car was seen dousing Main street this forenoon.

The citizens who were treated to the novel sight are wondering what the occasion was for the double sprinkling—if nature's method was not satisfactory, or if the driver of the team simply wanted to work.

Basket ball practice has been begun at the seminary for the boys and girls. Mr. Heath acts as coach for the boys and Miss Darwin for the girls.

The candidates for the boys are J. Berry, S. Berry, Eastman, Heath, Alexander, Undersand, Harrison, Thomas and Macdonald. The candidates for the girls are Miss Cross, Miss Buell, Miss Chapman, Miss Spooner, Miss MacMurray, Miss Brown, Miss Foster, Miss Horsford, Miss Murray and Miss Templeton. With such good material coming in from outside schools, Goddard stands a fine chance of putting up some winning teams this year if the people of Barre stand back of the athletic association.

Harry Daniels of East Montpelier has leased the mill of William Jones on Wall street and has begun the work of getting out chair stock which is to be shipped away. The material used is the immense quantity of hard wood lumber which he reserved after the sale of his lumber lot to Stratton & Co. several months ago.

Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Allen expect to leave this week for the south, where they will remain during the winter months. Dr. Allen has recently returned from the Mary Fletcher hospital, where he had a very difficult operation for appendicitis performed, and a few months in a warmer climate is expected to return to him his usual health.

The final sitting of the court commission to lay out a road to the residence of Seth Rich, was held at the office of Lawyer C. D. Edgerton on Saturday. The decision was made in favor of laying the road. The case has been heard before a special commission, with Hon. Zed S. Stanton of Roxbury as chairman. Plumley & Plumley were the attorneys for the town and C. D. Edgerton attorney for Mr. Rich.

On Friday night the senior dance by the class of '07 of Norwich university was held in Dewey hall. The occasion proved an enjoyable one to the large number present. The hall was elaborately decorated with the class colors, swords, etc., making a very pleasing effect. Whittier's full orchestra of Montpelier furnished music. Many people from Barre, Montpelier, Waterbury and Randolph were present.

On Wednesday evening, November 28, the annual Thanksgiving ball will be held in the armory under the auspices of Company F, V. N. G.
